COPPERhaus KITCHEN

Beautiful, exquisite copper! Whitehaus Collection has created a distinctive collection of fine handcrafted copper sinks for the kitchen and bathroom, "Copperhaus."

Our Copperhaus sinks are rare beauties that invite warmth and serenity, yet a strong presence into one of the most important rooms in the home, the kitchen.

These finely crafted, seamless copper sinks exhibit a consistent even finish and fine detailing.

The final result is copper sinks that exhibit both delicate beauty and solid strength.

Why choose copper? Copper is one of the oldest metals known to man is a natural element, known as "man's eternal metal":one of our most useful and valuable materials, an element that has served mankind well since the beginning of time. It's best recognized for its strength, durability, healing properties, and ageless beauty.

One of the greatest benefits of owning sinks made from copper is the beauty of the metal – the older it becomes the more beautiful the finish.

One other hidden benefit to copper and its alloys (brasses, bronzes, copper-nickels, and nickel silvers) is a key finding that copper has a natural antibacterial effect and bacteria will not survive on its surface, unlike stainless steel and other surfaces.

This is a significant finding considering the daily health alerts and warnings.

This inspiring collection of copper sinks offers a mixture of traditional and modern designs and finishes.

Copper Care and Maintenance:

Maintaining a copper sink is not difficult at all. When it comes to maintenance of a copper sink, the less you do the better! Copper sinks do not require any type of polishing or scrubbing. Copper sinks are made with a patina appearance. The look is "fired" in. It gives the copper sink an aged, weathered look. This is the desired look for copper sinks.

There are a few things you can do for your copper sink to keep it looking its best:

- Avoid contact with citric and other natural acids.
- After you are finished using the sink, rinse out whatever soap is left behind. If you live in an area where the mineral content in the water is high, it is a good idea to wipe out the sink after you rinse it. Wipe the entire surface dry with a clean, soft cloth after each use.
- Clean your sink with a soft sponge and mild dish soap. Do not use cleaners which contain acids, harsh chemicals, or abrasives. Do not scrub or polish the sink.

Your copper sink actually does most of the cleaning work by itself. Copper is a natural antibacterial. Unlike stainless steel sinks, copper sinks actually fight bacteria! It has recently been proven that bacteria can only live on a copper sink for a few hours; bacteria can live on a stainless steel sink for several days.
